Letter No NU/CHQ/03/Kerala

Dated 17-05-2016

To,

The General Manager (Rectt),
O/o CMD, BSNL,
New Delhi-110001

R/Sir,

Sub: - Request for relaxation the eligibility condition for the candidates for appearing the JTO (LICE) to be held on 22-05-2016.

Ref: - The JTO (Telecom) RR of 2014-(column 11 para 2 of the schedule).

The LICE (JTO) is notified to be conducted on 22-05-2016 for filling up the vacancies of JTO arose in the departmental quota during 2013-14 under new JTO RR of 2014 that came into force on 14-10- 2015. But, it is unfortunate note that large numbers of candidates who have applied for the examination are not eligible to appear in the examination due to the condition of residency in the pay scale of Rs.13600 is not satisfied.

It is also pertinent to note that they were drawing the basic pay of Rs. 17,340/- in the pay scale of 13600-25420 as on 1-1-2007. Subsequently when options were called for Non-Executive Promotion Policy they opted the scale of Rs.13600/- which is more beneficial for them.

It is also pointed out that this provision is not applicable to these candidates because these vacancies had arisen during the period of 2013-14 as per the notification of LICE in 2016 and the new JTO RR came into force only in 14-10-2015. So the vacancies that occurred prior to the amendment of the rules would be governed by the old rules.

In the above circumstance I request the GM (Rectt) for relaxation of the scale of pay as one of the eligibility criteria for appearing in the examination.

With regards

Yours Sincerely

(K. Jayaprakash)
General Secretary
